CORAM: B.H.MARLAPALLE, J.

August 28, 2007.

P.C.

. Heard Mr.Pradhan and the learned APP for the respective parties. The applicant's Criminal Appeal No.795 of 2007 has been admitted today against the order of conviction and sentence passed under Section 306 of IPC in Sessions Case No.196 of 2005 by the learned Ad-hoc Addl. Sessions Judge at Solapur. This is an application for being released on bail. As noted earlier the applicant has been sentenced to suffer RI for three years and to pay a fine of Rs.2000/- in default further RI for six months. It is stated that the fine amount has been deposited and in case if there is any balance, the same would be deposited within one week from today.

. It is further pointed out that the applicant has been continued on bail as of now as per the order passed by the trial Court under Section 389 of Cr.P.C.

. Having regards to the circumstances of this case and the circumstantial evidence brought before the trial Court by the prosecution, I am satisfied that the applicant deserves to be continued on bail during the pendency of Criminal Appeal No.795 of 2007.

. Hence the application is allowed and the order of sentence is hereby stayed and the applicant is directed to be released on bail, unless required in some other case, on the same terms as before the trial Court but on fresh bonds.
